OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

Lieutenant General C. P. Cabell
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Cabell:

With reference to your letter of February 2, 1955, I would suggest that the Director of the National Indications Center call upon Lt. Gen. Willard S. Paul, Assistant Director for Plans and Readiness, or his deputy, Brig. Gen. Leonard J. Greeley, to brief them and at the same time have them arrange for the necessary contacts with the appropriate offices in the Office of Defense Mobilization so that he may work out the kind of information which is already being made available at need by the Telecommunications Area.

Sincerely yours,

Arthur S. Flemming
Director
